

Nathan Grieve, University of New Brunswick

Comments related to infinite wedge representations

I will discuss the infinite wedge representation and explain how it is related to the universal central extension of the loop algebra of a complex semi-simple Lie algebra. I will also discuss a proof of the boson-fermion correspondence. The idea, in this direction, is to use a combinatorial construction combined with an application of the Murnaghan-Nakayama rule.